Daniel Boone Days 2015

Despite the cancellation and rescheluding of the Daniel Boone Days event to Saturday night July 4th at 6:00 pm. everything went smooth as planned. One of the bands had a conflict but singer T.J. Howard was there and several vendors as well.

The crowd was not as big as usual but at 10 pm when it was time for the fireworks to begin, cars were parked up new 11 all the way to the parking lot of the post office. Town was over flowing with spectators waiting for the fireworks to begin, since last years show was so spetacular.

This years firework display was also a great show to watch. Look for more pictures of Daniel Boone Days on page 9.

He stated within this design they were working with these students so they would be able to master concepts instead of just cramming everything in and going on just to get everything in. Mr. Bobrowski stated they were looking at coding classes at the high school and other classes for students through their race to the top grant. He stated they would be looking many different classes and others to help students move forward.

HAPPY 239TH BIRTHDAY AMERICA!!!

Have you ever noticed how close our nation's birthday is to Father's Day? This year it is only 13 days. As an American and a father; I couldn't help but wonder what our founding fathers would have thought of how well the nation turned out. As a dad, I am very proud of my children (all grown up now). However, as any honest parent will confess, there has been times in our kid's lives we can lovingly tell them, "You really shouldn't have done that."

Father's are proud of their children's accomplishments. Those first steps, riding a bicycle, A's on the report card, graduation, landing that first big job, finding a spouse and the delivery of the first grandchild, are only a few of the happy moments dad's experience.

The first two accomplishments that come to mind when thinking of America are WWII and men on the moon.

The world owes America more than it can ever repay. I'm not talking about all the money we've given out over the years, I'm speaking about the fact that nations of the world pledge allegiance to their own flag and are not saluting a swastika.

As Americans, can we can walk outside, look up into the sky, see the moon and say, "We've been there." No one from any other country can say that. As a child, my father thought going to the moon was science fiction, to me it was an event I saw happen, to my children it is history.

Our victory in WWII and the Apollo missions do sum up what it is to be an American. We roll up our sleeves, face evil in the eye and do the right thing. Americans will sacrifice their blood on the battlefield to deliver freedom. Americans look to the heavens and dream.

In other countries, people will wonder, "How am I going to survive today?"

In America we think, "Today was good. How do I make tomorrow better?"

Are, there things we've done as a nation our founding fathers would have said, "You really shouldn't have done that."? Yes, there are, but overall, I think the father of our country, George Washington would have been proud of our accomplishments.

As a dad, my pride in my children is not wrapped up only in what they can accomplish in life. In fact, there is something that holds much more weight than what they do; it is their heart.

In a general order George Washington gave to the troops May 2, 1778 he told them their higher duty was to be a Christian. "While we are zealously performing the duties of good citizens and soldiers, we certainly ought not to be inattentive to the higher duties of religion. To the distinguished character of Patriot, it should be our highest glory to add the more distinguished character of Christian."

John Quincy Adams, our sixth President, said in a speech July 4, 1837, that American Independence and Christianity were "indissolubly linked."

The whole quote: "In the chain of human events, the birthday of the nation is indissolubly linked with the birthday of the Savior. The Declaration of Independence laid the cornerstone of human government upon the first precepts of Christianity."

James Madison, our fourth President believed individual salvation was more important than national accomplishments. He wrote to William Bradford on September 25, 1773, "A watchful eye must be kept on ourselves lest, while we are building ideal monuments of renown and bliss here, we neglect to have our names enrolled in the Annals of Heaven."

John Jay, the first Chief Justice of the Supreme Court believed being a Christian was the most needed qualification to hold public office. In a letter dated October 12, 1816, to John Murray Jr., "Providence has given to our people the choice of their rulers, and it is the duty as well as the privilege and interest of our Christian nation, to select and prefer Christians for their rulers."

In a report from the Judiciary Committee to the 33rd Congress (1854) it is stated that Christian principles founded the country, and it was expected the nation to remain Christian through the generations of time. Quoting the report: "Had the people, during the Revolution, had a suspicion of any attempt to war against Christianity, that Revolution would have been strangled in its cradle... In this age, there can be no substitute for Christianity... That was the religion of the founders of the republic and they expected it to remain the religion of their descendants."

Quotes such as these can fill volumes. Type, "Christian quotes founding fathers" into a search engine and be prepared to read all day. There are some out there that will try to convince you our founding fathers were deist instead of Christians, but the truth of the matter is the heart and soul of America are founded on the principles of Christianity.

If our nation's founding fathers could look at us now, I believe they would smile at our accomplishments as a nation. What would they think of our heart? Would they shed tears?

"Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD; and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance" - Psalm 33:12.

Outdoor Truths

by Gary Miller

I'm always amazed at those who can make things with their hands. I too enjoy creating, but my talents are very limited. I have seen some of the most beautiful items come from things like hickory branches, deer antlers, and turkey feathers. We all love to see furniture that is made from hewn logs and chandeliers made from elk antlers. There's just something about present conveniences being wrapped in the ruggedness of the past, or slick technology placed inside a rough exterior. I wonder sometimes who comes up with some of these ideas like making a lamp from a piece of drift wood. I don't know the answer, but I sure would like to have one. And this stuff is expensive! I was recently at one of these "outdoor" stores in Branson, Missouri. On one table was an elk antler. Nothing printed on it and nothing built into it; and not both antlers, just one. The price was over $200.00! Deer antlers were pricey as well. It's amazing how animals sometimes are valued more in their dying than in their living. We know this is true when we look at so many who poach protected animals just for what they can gain from some part of its anatomy.

Four legged animals are not the only ones who become more valuable in their dying; we do to. It is the Christian way. If we are to live, we must die. This is an unusual paradox. This dying is not a physical one but one that takes place when we give our lives over to Christ. He then begins to live in and through us and takes even the most undesirable and seemingly insignificant parts of our lives and makes some unique, special, useful, and valuable treasures from them. He is the great artisan.

When you look at the things in your life, do you see them as ordinary and without worth? Do you think that you have nothing of value to offer God or humanity? Do you consider yourself ungifted? My friend, the value of a diamond is not complete until it has been handed to a jeweler to be cut and polished. And our value is also not complete until we have placed everything we have and are in the hands of God and allow Him to design something of great worth that we could have never done on our own.

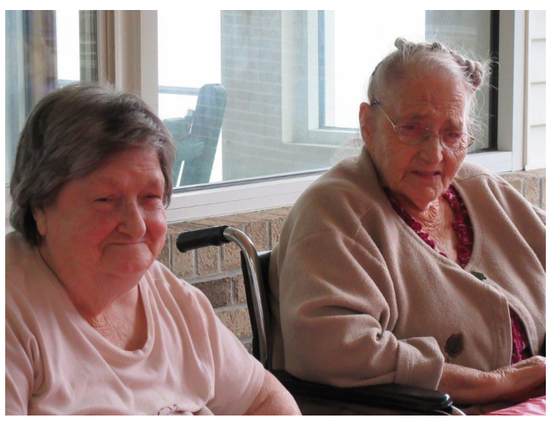
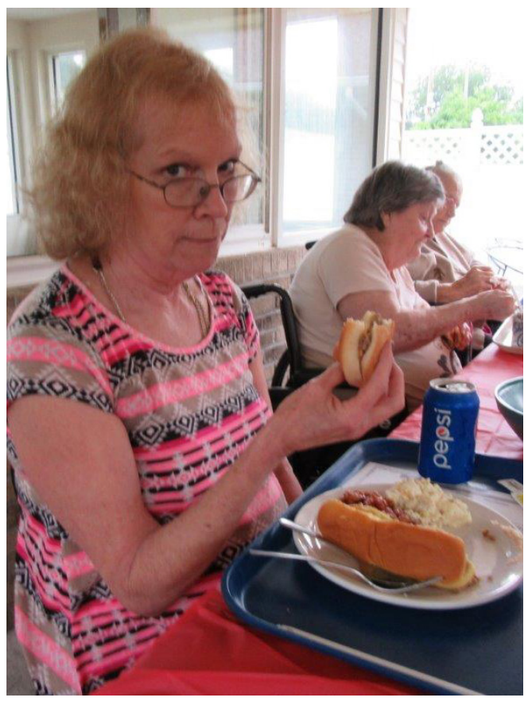
Owsley County Health Care Celebrates the 4th of July

Despite the cloudy skies and rain the residents at the Owsley County Health Care Center were able to celebrate the 4th of July with a cook-out. Residents gathered around the shelter for hamburgers, hot dogs, and a yummy dessert. Everyone liked being outside and the rain stopped long enough to make it a very enjoyable lunch.





Warrens Chapel Homecoming 2015

As the sun rose over the hill at Vincent on Sunday morning, June 28, 2015, there was an air of anticipation of the day that lay ahead. The old church house had been scrubbed, the lawn had a fresh manicure and the block wall out front glistened with repair including a new coat of white paint. The church house sat as a "beacon on the hill" and as the old bell rang it seemed to beacon one and all to "Come", "Come and worship our lord Jesus Christ"!! Today was the 83rd anniversary since the church began meeting here at Warrens Chapel on June 28th 1932!

By the end of the day, 134 people had come to celebrate homecoming. The youngest person was Daphne Belle Spence, two-month-old daughter of Lincoln and Anita Gail Spence. Daphne's big sister, Layla Grace and Ellie Ann were recognized in previous years as the youngest to attend homecoming, what a precious family!

Three people were there who will have their 92nd birthdays this summer. Mrs. Heseltine Mays checked in as the oldest. She will be having her 92nd birthday in July. Ms Mavis Price came in a close second with a 92nd birthday august followed closely by Mr. Bobby Marcum, who came in from Lexington with his daughter. Bobby's 92nd Birthday will be September. He shared a memory from a Christmas pageant at Warrens Chapel from his childhood. When it was his turn to speak he said "Jesus Saves".

Three people got up early in the morning and drove 200 miles from Crothersville, Indiana, just to attend homecoming. Rena Clem, Leona Clem Lamb, and Benjamin Coomer traveled at the farthest! Rena and Leona attended Warrens Chapel Church in the early 1970's. it was so good to see them again and Rena left behind a book containing some of her poetry which we will Share.

Can you believe that the Bowling family had 40 members at our homecoming celebration? That is more than ever before! How awesome to have the opportunity to worship our Lord with so many of your friends and family members present!

Rev. David Fox delivered the most fitting message of the day. He led us through scriptures that answered the questions, "Who am I?" "Where am I?" "Why am I here?" and "Where am I going?" It was such a wonderful message directly from the Word of God. Thank you, David, for your strong leadership and words of encouragement. Howard Price, Deana McIntosh, and Brenda Spence led memorial Moments. Three of our church members who are celebrating homecoming in Heaven this year were remembered: Charlie Bowling; Pearl Price and Carrie Bowling. How we miss them!

The old Church building was filled with music throughout the day. We heard amazing music from Dalton Prices Trumpet, Glen and Kari Baker, David and Vivian Fox, the Warrens Chapel Stars, the youth group, and the congregational singing during the morning worship service. The music spilled outside and down the hill to anyone who would pause and listen.

After a bountiful lunch, the group returned to the sanctuary for afternoon singing, featuring Joan Campbell, Charlotte Atkins, Lincoln Spence, Jina Estridge, David and Vivian Fox, Dennis Gabbard, Glenn and Kari Baker, Abby Hill on Piano, and Dalton Price on trumpet. The highlight of the afternoon was David Fox's friend, Harry, who brought smiles to the faces of young and old. Harry told us about the 10 lepers who came to Jesus for healing but only one of them came back to thank Jesus and was made whole. Yes, it was a wonderful day. No parking spots, pushed cars into the hayfields fellowship hall and picnic shelter were filled with lunch. The love of God was abundant and our hearts were filled to capacity! There were tears and smiles, hugs and handshakes, and good old –fashioned Christian Fellowship.

The most appropriate benediction for such a day of celebrating Jesus Christ would come from Jude 1:24: &25: "Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding Joy, To the only wise God our savior, be glory and Majesty, Domination and power, both now and ever. Amen. "if you do not have a church home, you are welcome to come and worship with us. Worship service begins at 9:45AM each Sunday Morning, followed by Sunday school at 10:45AM.

Rena Clem, Leona Clem Lamb, and Benjamin Coomer traveled 200 miles from Crothersville, Indiana to attend the homecoming.

Daphne Belle Spence, 2-month old daughter of Lincon and Anita Gail Spence was the youngest person to attend homecoming

Rev. David Fox and Vivian sang "There's Never Been A Time When We Didn't Have Faith In God" at Warrens Chapel Homecoming.

Rev. David Fox and his friend, Harry tell about the 10 lepers who came to Jesus for healing.

Can you believe that there were 40 members of the Bowlilng family at Warrens Chapel's Homecoming? Praise the Lord!

Matthew 18:16 "...Suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of God". Children playing at Warrens Chapel Homecoming: Maikota Little, Maggie Green, Lyla Spence, Samantha Dotson, Braydon Newman and Bryson Bowling.

Manchester Memorial Hospital Hosted its Annual SCRUBS Camp

Manchester, KY – Manchester Memorial Hospital (MMH) successfully hosted its annual SCRUBS Camp last week. The Camp, led by MMH Community Outreach Coordinator Jeremy Hacker, is open to high school students hoping to pursue a career in the healthcare industry.

This camp outlines various aspects of healthcare for the students, and provides them with hands-on experience, with lessons planned and taught by practicing physicians and providers.

This year, camp goers were able to experience the entire casting process from beginning (setting) to end (removing) with our Orthopedic Surgeon, Dr. Giriraj Gupta. Next, they were taught how to suture wounds by Dr. Angela Rice, who practices at Family Medical Care of Clay County. To cap off a wonderful learning spell, students were made to actually put on scrubs and were given a tour of an operating room (OR) at MMH by Michael Stimson, Nurse Manager for the OR and Emergency Department.

For more information on the upcoming community events by Manchester Memorial Hospital, call at 606-598-1095 or visit www.manchestermemorial.org.

LOOKING BACK ON HIS LIFE; Clarence was pleased that he was considered by others as a hardworking man. He respected a man who cared to do his very best at his job. He was proud of the fact that all of his siblings had worked steady jobs as adults. He had planned for an emergency fund and saved money starting with his first paycheck. That effort served him well throughout his life. He remembered it being so cold in the winter when he was a child that the drinking water in the bucket inside their house would sometimes freeze solid. He supposed that was one of the reasons it was important to him to have a tightly insulated home where he could stay warm. He thought of his brother Will and the day that Will called in a favor from their childhood. Will had made a career in the military after the War, and seldom came back to visit. Will called Clarence one day and asked if he and his family could come and stay with him for a week. He was going to be stationed out of the country for two years and wanted some quality time with his brother and family. Will told his younger brother that he wanted to cash in on the favor from when he kept the secret of the ripped shirt from their mother. Clarence had forgotten all about that little episode until Will reminded him. Clarence was more than willing to accommodate Will whether it was a favor called in or not!

Clarence decided today was the day he wanted to take Liza to the family cemetery. He had heard Liza Jane practicing her songs and didn't want to disturb her, but he wanted to go the cemetery before lunch. He listened to her sing for a while and then when she stopped singing he went and asked if she was ready to take a ride with him. They rode to the cemetery and walked around looking at old graves and talking about the relatives that were buried there. Liza's mother Lorene was buried there and her father would be buried there someday. Clarence had brought a large legal pad on which Liza had written all the names of his relatives buried there. He was having trouble remembering all their names and how they were related to him. He had attended many funerals in this cemetery over his lifetime. That was the way life was. Some people had been blessed with long lives, where others had died young. Clarence thought about his friend Buck and how he would be laid to rest in a few short days. Buck had been blessed with a long life just like Clarence. They had seen so many changes in the world during their lifetime. The two of them would talk about every topic that entered their minds. Of course they thought they were the authority on most subjects. Their friendship had been a special friendship.

Owsley FFA Officers Attend Kentucky Leadership Training

On Monday, June 15th, 7 Owsley County FFA members departed from the Lee County High School at 7:00am for the Kentucky FFA Leadership Training Center. It took about 4 ½ hours to get there. When we got there we were assigned cabins. Lee County and Owsley County girls bunked together in cabin 3 and the Lee County and the Owsley County boys bunked together in cabin 16.

When we got settled in we ate lunch. Afterwards we all met in the pavilion and got split up into our Athletic groups. Everyday we would meet up with our group and play our minor and/or major sport. Where we arrived at noon on Monday we didn't start our officer classes, athletic groups, and special interest classes until Tuesday.

At 8:00am we had an officer class we had to attend where we learned our duties and responsibilities as that specific officer and how to use our skills to benefit our chapter. After our officer class was over we had chapter hour for two hours.

Since we were signed up for ropes on Tuesday we had to attend the Ropes Course with Lee County. All members from Lee County made it over the wall except for two. From Owsley County we had Thea Smith and Zach Nuttle make it over the wall. We also had Matthew Nuttle try. It was very successful. After we did Ropes we got back to regular chapter hour. During chapter hour we would meet up and talk and make goals for our chapter to strive for in the upcoming year. We made a list of everything we plan on doing in the next year and put it all in our chapter calendar. From having chapter hour we got a good insight on everyone's opinions about the upcoming events, current situations, etc.

Each day they had a new game that the chapters would compete in. On Tuesday it was Waterball. We did not compete in that but on Wednesday we competed in Chapter Volleyball. Both Owsley and Lee County lost but even though we lost, we didn't care because we each made it through as a team.

During chapter hour we decided that on Thursday Lee and Owsley would meet up and visit the "Big Tree". We had several members climb the tree and even had a few lay down in the tree. We each took group pictures while we were there. When Friday rolled around we had to pack up and get ready to leave.

When we attended our last session they passed out All Star Athletes Awards and Leadership Awards. The All Star Athletes Awards were awarded to Team Purple, which was led by our Agriculture Teacher and FFA Advisor Ms. Candrea Bingham. We also had one member that was on the Purple Team that received an All Star Athlete Award and that was Matthew Nuttle. After our session was over we met up with our Athletic Groups for the last time and spread out and picked up all the trash on the Camp grounds to help them get ready for the next week of comp.

On the way back home we stopped at Ryan's Steakhouse to eat. After we left there we stopped and visited My Old Kentucky Home. It was simply great. We finally made it home at about 7:00pm. The members we had attend Camp this year was Madi Creech, Hayley Barrett, Thea Smith, Faith Duff, Matt Nuttle, Cindy Lewis and Zach Nuttle. This it the best camp. We had so much fun and became so much closer as an FFA family. This is a great group of individuals that will be sure to lead Owsley County FFA to great things.

Three Summery Ways to Improve Your Health

(StatePoint) For the health conscious, there's no such thing as a summer vacation from making good nutritional choices and getting plenty of exercise. But there's no reason to let a healthy lifestyle become boring.

Here are three ways to let the summer season guide your routine:

• Mix Up Movement: After months of indoor exercise, you may be ready for a change of scenery. And summer is the ideal time to take a break from the treadmill and incorporate different types of movement and exercise into your lifestyle. So ditch the gym this weekend and head for greener pastures. From row boating to hiking, you'll find yourself activating different muscles than you normally would by mixing things up.

• Eat In-Season Produce: Take advantage of the summer harvest and plan meals around in-season produce. The USDA lists apples, beets, bell peppers, kiwifruit, carrots, garlic, peaches, okra and cherries, amongst many more fruits and vegetables that reach their peak in the summer months. These items are a chock full of vitamins and nutrients and taste their best in summer.

• Summer Sun: Beyond the Vitamin D factor, a study published in the Journal of Investigative Dermatology shows that sunlight may lower blood pressure, which could reduce one's risk for heart attack and stroke. Some researchers now say the benefits of sunlight could outweigh cancer risks associated with exposure. Don't forget to take the usual precautions, however. Wear sunglasses, sunscreen and a wide brimmed hat to protect against harmful UV radiation.

Owsley County Board of Education

Charlotte Thompson, School Nutrition Services told the board about the mobile unit they did for summer feed program they decided to do this year. She stated that it got so big, they had to go to two units and they were feeding around 280 students per day. Thompson stated that they were going out to various sites: OC Public Library, Warrens Chapel, Booneville Life Center, Housing Project, Booneville Homes, Cow Creek Church, Joe's Meat Market, and a few families that do not have transportation they are going to the home and feeding the children there. "We've tripled the meals that we served last year", stated Ms. Thompson. CAP was contacted and a semi truck load of food was brought in for us to give to the families in the county.

"Twice a day I am going to the gym and giving out food to all of these families that are in so much need and to the families that don't have transportation, I am taking food out to them", stated Ms. Thompson. Mr. Deaton ask how many stops there were. Ms. Thompson stated around 17. He ask how many vehicles were used. Charlotte stated 2, that they were using the school van and the Head Start/Early Head Start Van because they were also serving those students.

She stated that she was buying all of the fuel for both vans and was also reimbursing the board back $1 per mile for each van for the upkeep on the vans. Ms. Thompson also stated that she had also been using Mr. Randy Burns, Mr. Alan Kidd and Mr. Carl Dean. She stated that the vans were loaded at 10:30 am and one group went one way and the other group went the other way.

Dr. Bobrowski stated that they might think about buying a van to use for this program if they were going to continue and to use during the winter months when they were going to use this program to feed the students when they were out extended days at various sites throughout the county. He went on to say that food service may could purchase it to use for this venture. Joyce Campbell, chairperson thanked her for being willing to do this program for the students in the district.

Dr. Bobrowski had the following personnel actions: accepted the retirement of Peggy Edwards effective 8/31/15; retirement of Sheila Thomas – effective 6/30/15; Sandy Hartsock – effective 8/1/15; Kathy Burns – effective 7/1/15; employed Jessica Brewer as Owsley Elementary Cheer Coach; and the resignation of Doug Holmes as the Assistant Basketball Coach. He stated after he consulted with the board attorney with the critical positions that they have opening up, such as Ms. Hartsock's it must be though of in a delicate perspective, that no one else has held this job but Ms. Hartsock that's why I have shadowing experience for account clerk, account manager and school secretary down because of these delicate jobs.

The Board went into executive session to discuss a personnel matter and to discuss a possible litigation. When they came out of litigation, there was no action taken.

The last item on the agenda was to review/approve certified/classified & extra service salary schedules for the 2015-2016 SY to include the 2% raise. The board approved the 2% raise which includes the entire staff, including the superintendent's base salary since in his contract part of his salary is based on the teacher salary schedule plus an additional stipend.

In the extra service salary schedule, the following positions/salaries were given raises for the 2015-16 SY: District Finance Director: From $2000 to $3500; Food Services Director: from $2500 to $3000; A New Position to the Salary Schedule – Instructional Transformation Grant Project Manager - $6000; A New Position to the Salary Schedule – Instructional Transformation Grant LDC/MDC Coaches – Elementary Boys & Girls Basketball – From $1000 to $1500; Head Middle School Boys and Girls Basketball From $1200 to $1500; Head Elementary, Middle and High School Archery from $600 to $750; and Secretary to the board – From $2200 to $3000. The extra amount added to the extra service salaries total over $17000 per year to the school's budget.

The Booneville Gappers are a local 14 under baseball team coached by Derrick Marshall. Monday night they finished runner up versus Campton Wolves in the Jackson Parks & Recreation 14U Baseball Tournament at Douthitt Park in Jackson, Ky. The game had three lead changes and the score changed as the teams battled each inning, however, the Gappers tried to tie the game in the last inning as Xander Terry stole second base on a throwing error to centerfield. Coach Marshall sent Terry to third base in hope of another throwing error but this time the throw was perfect to the third baseman as Terry was tagged for the third out of the last inning. This ended the game in a 14-13 Wolves victory.
